WORK FAMILY

MEDICAL ADVISOR (PHYSICIAN)

At WorkSafeBC, we are dedicated to playing a strong leadership role in workplace injury and disease prevention in B.C. The team is seeking resourceful and knowledgeable professionals to provide diagnostic, therapeutic and consulting services.

Working in a team-based environment and collaborating with adjudicative staff and community physicians, you will provide advice on the medical aspects of workplace injury claims. You will assist in developing collaborative care/return-to-work plans and examine injured workers. You should be prepared to emphasize evidence-based practices.

As a qualified candidate, you'll possess:

- Eligibility for full licensure by the College of Physicians and Surgeons of BC
- Minimum five years of experience in family practice and an interest in sports, rehabilitation or occupational medicine.

Full-time or part-time staff positions available
- or contracted part-time positions.

Balance and wellness. As a leader in promoting healthy and safe workplaces, WorkSafeBC believes the health and wellness of our employees depends on a solid work-life balance. As a member of our staff, you'll have access to services that can help you get the most out of work... and life.

- Health and fitness: We offer many ways for you to keep healthy and fit. Our Richmond office includes a fitness program offering equipment and classes, and staff outside Richmond is reimbursed the cost of gym memberships.
- Self-funded leave: Contribute 20 percent of your salary annually for four years, then take the fifth year off and use your accumulated funds.
- Earned Time Off: Start with four weeks vacation, plus the ability to add another 13 days off.
- Continuing Medical Education: Reimbursement for CME-related expenses every two calendar years, to a prescribed maximum amount.
- WCB Pension Plan
