Trucking Organizations

British Columbia Trucking Association

BCTA is a province-wide, non-profit motor carrier association, formed solely to advance the interests of British Columbia motor carriers. Founded in 1913, BCTA members include for-hire and private carriers hauling every conceivable type of freight including manufactured goods, heavy specialized commodities, bulk products, household goods and general freight. They also represent bus, courier, ready-mixed concrete and waste management companies and industry suppliers.

The Private Motor Truck Council

The Private Motor Truck Council (PMTTC) is the only Canadian association dedicated to the interests of fleet operators. PMTTC provides forums for fleet operators and industry stakeholders to exchange views and resolve issues together, and is at the forefront in representing these views to government, protecting members' rights and promoting members' interests.
